BLIND

Alex Sampson

Just take a break, I'm feeling broken
Too late for words unspoken
Don't show up early morning

I can't forget you, erase you
I'm running out of time
To replace you or chase you
Ignoring all the signs
'Cause I see you, I need you
To ruin my life

Even if I go blind tonight
You're still stuck in my mind
Took the framing off the wall but kept the pictures inside
Go and leave me for dead
Then come and bring me to life
An eye for an eye leaves the both us
Blind

Too late to get some distance
Your touch is too persistent
You love with blurry vision

Even if I go blind tonight
You're still stuck in my mind
Took the framing off the wall but kept the pictures inside (Oh-oh)
Go and leave me for dead
Then come and bring me to life
An eye for an eye leaves the both us

Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh (Leaves the both of us)
No-no-no (Leaves the both of us blind)
Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh (Leaves the both of us)
No-no-no (Leaves the both of us blind)

I can't forget you, erase you
I'm running out of time
To replace you or chase you
Ignoring all the signs
'Cause I see you, I need you
To ruin my life

Even if I go blind tonight
You're still stuck in my mind
Took the framing off the wall but kept the pictures inside
Go and leave me for dead
Then come and bring me to life
An eye for an eye leaves the both us
Blind
Tonight, you're still stuck in my mind
Took the framing off the wall but kept the pictures inside
Go and leave me for dead
Then come and bring me to life
An eye for an eye leaves the both us
Blind
