

Ways

Alex Schulz

You'll see the difference now
If we change it, you'll know how Nothing ever stays the same once you let it, let it change.
It's like a family tree want to view it, part of me And if we should separate go your own way, I don't break.

You are too good to be cruel I'll play the part of the fool where we should break all these ties You won't see tears in these eyes
