

Live Alone

Alex Vargas

("Boy, can you keep the fucking noise down?")

We have a garden
We have a garden
We're four in a house, only three is allowed
But we have a garden
We have friends
We have friends
The sun in the yard, and they come around
Come around

There's so many people here all the time
So many jokes that I don't get every night
There's so many cigarettes laying on the ground
On the ground, on-on the ground

What I would give to live alone right now
Live alone right now
What I would give to live alone right now
Live alone right now
What I would give to live alone right now
Live alone right now
What I would give to live alone right now
Live alone right now

("Oh my god, you are so boring")

I have a girlfriend, she has girlfriends
They wanna hang, they wanna hang
Don't know what to do 'cause there's porn in my room
And I don't wanna hang, but I still dig my girlfriend

There's so many people here all the time
So many jokes that I don't get every night
There's too many shoes in the hall that ain't mine
That ain't mine, ain't-ain't mine

What I would give to live alone right now
Live alone right now
What I would give to live alone right now
Live alone right now
What I would give to live alone right now
Live alone right now
What I would give to live alone right now
Live alone right now

Last night the neighbor yelled out
"More noise and I'ma come down"
This party is lost
This party is lost
Last night the neighbor yelled out
"Mind keeping it the fuck down?"
This party is lost
This party is lost
(I have a girlfriend
I have a girlfriend)

What I would give to live alone right now
Live alone right now
What I would give to live alone right now
Live alone right now
What I would give to live alone right now
Live alone right now
What I would give to live alone right now
Live alone right now
What I would give to live alone right now
What I would give to live alone right now
What I would give to live alone right now
What I would give to live alone right now

Last night the neighbor yelled out
"Mind keeping it the fuck down?"
This party is lost
This party is lost
