Backslide

Alex Vaughn

I walked in and I can't stop lookin' at you
You can feel the vibe and I can feel it too, yeah
In a world full of lies you're the only thing true
And with the rain comin' down, I'm in the mood
I hope you ain't afraid of rain
Thunderstorm and let it pour
They say that ain't no lettin' up, no
It won't stop 'til the morning
Slow the motion, show emotions
Give me pleasure, give me pain
And baby, you're the weatherman, yeah
So let's just let it rain, rain, rain
So let's just let it rain, rain, rain
