

Before You Leave Me

Alex Warren

Darling, handle me with care
Cover me in bubble wrap
I'm scared you really mean it, that you're never coming back
See your bag right by the stairs
I guess you're already packed
Know I can't change your mind but how could you just leave like that

Oh uh oh uh oh
I'm not ready to let you go
So

Just give me one more night
Hold me like you're still mine
Oh, love me for right now, before you leave me
I know it's gonna hurt
Watching your footsteps turn
So love me for right now, before you leave me

Oh, love me for right now, before you leave me
Oh, love me for right now

I'm so used to getting damaged
And you know I hate this part
So I gotta take advantage of a fully broken heart
Won't you stay a little longer
Even if it's all pretend
And maybe by the morning I'll be ready for the end

Oh uh oh uh oh
I'm not ready to let you go
So

Just give me one more night
Hold me like you're still mine
Oh, love me for right now, before you leave me
I know it's gonna hurt
Watching your footsteps turn
So love me for right now, before you leave me

Oh, love me for right now, before you leave me
Oh, love me for right now

Oh uh oh
Got one foot out the door
Oh uh oh
Cos you don't need me anymore
Oh uh oh
Got one foot out the door
Oh uh oh
Cos you don't need me anymore
You don't need me anymore
You don't need me anymore

Just give me one more night
Hold me like you're still mine
Oh, love me for right now, before you leave me
I know it's gonna hurt

Watching your footsteps turn
So love me for right now, before you leave me

Oh, love me for right now
