

Eternity

Alex Warren

And it feels like an eternity
Since I had you here with me
Since I had to learn to be
Someone you don't know

To be with you in paradise
What I would've sacrificed
Why'd you have to chase the light
Somewhere I can't go?
As I walk this world alone

Through the morning rain
I stare at photographs and memories we share
Time has changed what it used to be
But my heart still holds on faithfully

And it feels like an eternity
Since I had you here with me
Since I had to learn to be
Someone you don't know

To be with you in paradise
What I would've sacrificed
Why'd you have to chase the light
Somewhere I can't go?
As I walk this world alone

Every song brings back your smile
The way we danced if just for a while
Seasons change, years drift away
But these feelings they choose to stay

Maybe time will heal these scars
Maybe distance makes us who we are
But if you ever turn around
Know that I'll be waiting here somehow

And it feels like an eternity
Since I had you here with me
Since I had to learn to be
Someone you don't know

To be with you in paradise
What I would've sacrificed
Why'd you have to chase the light
Somewhere I can't go?
As I walk this world alone
As I walk this world alone
As I walk this world alone
