

Headlights

Alex Warren

I'm in the backseat of my own life
Someone else is driving
Down a street that don't feel like mine
Windows up so high I can't breathe

You can hold me, say it's all right
I'll be lonely at the same time
Wide awake but stuck inside a dream
Is it only me or do you

Ever feel like you've had enough?
Screaming at the top of your lungs
These days it's so dark and I can't get my head right
Mind is spinning out of control
Running but there's nowhere to go
These days it's so dark that I can't see with headlights

I don't know how I'm still surviving
In the clouds so high
It almost feels like I'm flying without a pilot
Paralyzed but I'm still here trying

You can hold me, say it's all right
I'll be lonely at the same time
Wide awake but stuck inside a dream
Is it only me or do you

Ever feel like you've had enough?
Screaming at the top of your lungs
These days it's so dark and I can't get my head right
Mind is spinning out of control
Running but there's nowhere to go
These days it's so dark that I can't see with headlights

Oh-oh, oh, oh
Oh-oh, oh, oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh, oh, oh
Oh-oh, oh, oh-oh-oh

You can hold me, say it's all right (Oh-oh, oh, oh)
I'll be lonely at the same time (Oh-oh, oh, oh-oh-oh)
Wide awake but stuck inside a dream (Oh-oh, oh, oh)
Is it only me or—
The backseat of my own life
Someone else is driving

Ever feel like you've had enough?
Screaming at the top of your lungs
These days it's so dark and I can't get my head right
Mind is spinning out of control
Running but there's nowhere to go
These days it's so dark that I can't see with headlights
