

Real Things

Alex Wiley

Damn, I'm living life like it don't ever stop
Bitch, I'm making music, workin' 'round the clock
'Bout to change my life, man, I can't stop
People said I couldn't do it, but just fucking watch
Life's been easy, now that I've been making shit
All I've gotta do is just keep making shit
Thinking about my life and what it could be
Shit, it's what it should be

I've been doing real things
I've been making money
Oh lord, you can't stop me now
Or dare take it from me
I've been doing real things
I've been making money
Oh lord, you can't stop me now
Or dare take it from me

Tore that shit down and I told him rebuild
Just running low, then you need a refill
Running my race and they telling me chill
Still meditate when I know to be still
Taking these meters, they selling me deals
Selling me dreams, selling me thrills
I cannot trust it, not even a little
If you been fucked over, I know how you feel

Look into the sky, you'lll see me
I'll be here in the end
Look into it
Look into the sky, you'lll see me
I'll be here in the end

Damn, I'm living life like it don't ever stop
Bitch, I'm making music, workin' 'round the clock
'Bout to change my life, man, I can't stop
People said I couldn't do it, but just fucking watch
Life's been easy, now that I've been making shit
All I've gotta do is just keep making shit
Thinking about my life and what it could be
Shit, it's what it should be

I've been doing real things
I've been making money
Oh lord, you can't stop me now
Or dare take it from me
I've been doing real things
'Cause I've been making money
Oh lord, you can't stop me now
Or dare take it from me
