

Stay for a While

Alex Wiley

Okay we chillin', it's cool
Damn you know just what to do
Fuck one I wanna roll two
Okay I'm back in my groove
Girl you should stay for a while
Stay for a while, stay for a while, now
Girl you should stay for a while
Stay for a while, stay for a while, now

Okay we chillin', it's cool
Damn you know just what to do
Fuck one I wanna roll two
Okay I'm back in my groove
Girl you should stay for a while
Stay for a while, stay for a while, now
Girl you should stay for a while
Stay for a while, stay for a while, now

Went lookin' for myself but I found you instead
Please never mind me if I interject
My dream's on my line, I'll reply with a text
All the scenes in my mind now they all in affect Precocious and kind, never toast for the time
Time is a circle, there's no finish lines
Eat a couple shrooms' and our souls intertwined
I move through the time and the space with the grace of gazelles
Tasting some L's but I'm taking it well
Hatred to fail and my nature is well, so I can't get derailed
Stuck in this box
Heaven is a hell, man I can't really tell
Tripped for eternity but they ain't fell
I don't play poker but I'm great with the tells
My face a bit stale
Play me a little, but I'm Damien Lillard how I'm blazing the trial
Niggas know these flows will go crazy as hell
Got 'em angered down to the membrane and the cells
You changing the game if you changing yourself
She gave me the brains and it gave me the chills
Damn

Okay we chillin', it's cool
Damn you know just what to do
Fuck one I wanna roll two
Okay I'm back in my groove
Girl you should stay for a while
Stay for a while, stay for a while, now
Girl you should stay for a while
Stay for a while, stay for a while, now
