

The Fold

Alex Winston

Your love is a deepness, my love is cold
You're looking for someone babe but I'm too old

And I, know you do and you, want me to but I, I feel the fold

And I, know you do and you, want me to, I think I got to go alone

I feel the fold (3X)

Time time got a question, time time let it roll
Your fixing on the man in me, gone years ago

Bow cause I'm out, wouldn't leave so I left it Head down, face up, ready for my exit (13x)
