You were the life of the party
Everybody wanted a piece of you
Couldn't stop staring at me
In a room full of people, just us two

Then I walked out with nobody
'Cause my girl had eyes for you
So do me a favor don't call me
I can't be why she's not with you

Now I'm midnight driving
Wondering if I should've let you lean in
Feel the gravity pulling on our skin
Are you even worth it if I lose a friend
Or should we stay forbidden
Should we stay forbidden

I don't want you to see me
I don't want to care about you
Then I heard you laughing
And I remembered what you do
To me when you look like that
Come any closer
I don't know what I'll do
What should I do

Now I'm midnight driving
Wondering if I should've let you lean in
Feel the gravity pulling on our skin
Are you even worth it if I lose a friend
Or should we stay forbidden
Should we stay forbidden
Should we stay forbidden

Maybe I want you
'Cause I just can't have you
Maybe I want you
'Cause I just can't have you
Maybe I want you
'Cause I just can't have you
Maybe I want you
'Cause I just can't have you
You don't even know me
You never will

Maybe I want you
'Cause I just can't have you
Maybe I want you
'Cause I just can't have you
You don't even know me
You never will

'Cause I'm midnight driving
Wondering if I should've let you lean in
Feel the gravity pulling on our skin
Are you even worth it if I lose a friend

Or should we stay forbidden, oh ooh
Should we stay forbidden
Should we stay forbidden, oh oh ooh
