

Driving no hands on the wheel
Dying, is this how it feels?
Thought we were so invincible
Our story is so predictable
Hard to breathe through all the smoke
You laugh it off like it's a joke
I wish you were reversible
I'm miserable

Ooh, why did your kiss
Taste so bittersweet, I'm so naive
It's tragic
So high, on the risk
God, I always knew that loving you
Was a death wish

What the fuck did we expect to happen?
Lightning matches
While we dance around the table
Feelings can be fatal
Put you on a pedestal
So high and for a night
Thought I was falling for an angel
Feelings can be fatal

Feelings can be fatal
Feelings can be fatal

I can't unhear your stupid voice
I used to smile but you destroyed
The best parts of my personality
My confidence, my sanity

Ooh, why did your kiss
Taste so bittersweet, I'm so naive
It's tragic
So wild, take the hint
'Cause I always knew that loving you
Was a death wish

What the fuck did we expect to happen?
Lightning matches
While we dance around the table
Feelings can be fatal
Put you on a pedestal
So high and for a night
Thought I was falling for an angel
Feelings can be fatal

Feelings can be fatal
Feelings can be fatal
Feelings can be fatal (Ooh)
Feelings can be fatal
