

Please Try Again

AleXa

Call me
Every time you find I cross your mind
Won't you
Please tell me that you miss me
If you want to
Just tell me I'm enough
It sucks to be in love
Feel like we're falling apart

Tryin' to see our lining
Silver shining
Oh, baby
We can make it if we

Try, try, try
I won't give up on us
Can't deny
I've lost all my senses, but I'll
Try, try, try
Holding your hand in mine
Why, why, why
Don't you hear me cry?

Call me
The writing's on the wall, my darling
Can't see?
What is meant to be, will be
Now, won't you
Look in my eyes
The clouds in the sky
Are trying to hide
Everything that you're feeling inside
There's no sense in fighting
It's all in the light, but

Tryin' to see our lining
Silver shining
Oh, baby
We can make it if we

Try, try, try
I won't give up on us
Can't deny
I've lost all my senses, but I'll
Try, try, try
Holding your hand in mine
Why, why, why
Don't you hear me cry?

You call me
Whispering in the wind
Falling down
Pick it up, start again
We're running in circles
Can't get nowhere
Fighting back tears
While I sit and pray

Calling your name in the dark
Don't know where you are
Babe, we came so far

Try, try, try
I won't give up on us
Can't deny
I've lost all my senses, but I'll
Try, try, try
Why, why, why
Don't you hear me cry?
Try, try, try
I won't give up on us
Can't deny
I've lost all my senses, but I'll
Try, try, try
Holding your hand in mine
Why, why, why
Don't you hear me cry?

Call me
Call me
