

Sugarcoat

AleXa

Snap back
I didn't even mean it like that
Went too far, another backtrack
I can't admit when I was wrong
Don't go
For you, I put away my ego
It's hard to change the way I'm built though
I never said I wouldn't try

Hold it in, snap open
On my mind, late at night
I'll do, I'll make it all alright

Sugarcoat it, love
Think I said too much
Didn't know just how to put this
Sugarcoat it now
But is it too late?
Didn't know, didn't know why I hurt you
Didn't know, didn't know that I hurt you

Too soon
Thought I knew everything about you
But now, I'm learning something new
If only I could understand
'Cause we're doing too much, doing all the things
Keep on falling out of touch
I'll just shut up 'til I can't figure you out

Hold it in, snap open
On my mind, late at night
I'll do, I'll make it all alright

Sugarcoat it, love
Think I said too much
Didn't know just how to put this
Sugarcoat it now
But is it too late?
Didn't know, didn't know why I hurt you
Didn't know, didn't know that I hurt you

Sugarcoat it, love
Think I said too much
Wanna know, wanna know if you forgive me
