

Good To See You Again!

Alexander 23

Is it too much to ask to never see your face
And if we cross paths, we can look the other way?
I wear short sleeves, I learned the hard way
That you should keep your heart locked up in a safe
Is it too much to think that we could move on Go all the way around to the start of it all
When you were just you and I was just me?
Don't wanna go back to the shit in between

But since we're standing face to face
There's nothing left to say but

It's good to see you again
The very same mouth on the very same head
That told me in a hundred years when we're both dead
You would still never wanna see me again
So thank God we're with all of our friends
'Cause I'd hate to have to deal with all the shit that we said
'Cause you could say "I'm sorry" in English, Spanish, and French
Still, I'd never wanna see you again

Is it too much to try to make it through the night
Without causing a scene or getting into a fight?
I wasn't prepared to look into your eyes
The same brown circles that told me all those lies, no

But since we're standing face to face

It's good to see you again (Ooh, ooh)
The very same mouth on the very same head
That told me in a hundred years when we're both dead
You would still never wanna see me again
So thank God we're with all of our friends
'Cause I'd hate to have to deal with all the shit that we said (Ooh, ooh)
'Cause you could say "I'm sorry" in English, Spanish, and French
Still, I'd never wanna see you again

You asked me how I've been
You asked me how I've been
You asked me how I've been
But you don't really wanna know
You asked me how I've been
You asked me how I've been
You asked me how I've been
But you don't really wanna know

It's good to see you again
The very same mouth on the very same head
That told me in a hundred years when we're both dead
You would still never wanna see me again, no
So thank God we're with all of our friends
'Cause I'd hate to have to deal with all the shit that we said
'Cause you could say "I'm sorry" in English, Spanish, and French
Still, I'd never wanna see you again
