

How Much Longer?

Alexander 23

I try so hard
Did I scare you away
When I want it bad
I get in my own way

But I pinky promise
I can be who you fell for
But if I'm being honest
I can't see where to run toward

Where'd you go love how'd I lose you
Did I hurt you, are you mad

There is nothing I won't do love
To get back to what we had

And I would wait until forever
If you would take me heart in hand

But how much longer, can I love you
When baby you don't love me back

I need to know
Am I making it worse
Cuz my broken hearts
Never been more hurt

And I pinky promise I can be who you fell for
But if I'm being honest
I can't see where to run toward

Where'd you go love how'd I lose you
Did I hurt you, are you mad

There is nothing I won't do love
To get back to what we had

I would wait until forever
If you would take me heart in hand

But how much longer can I love you
When baby you don't love me back

Yeah how much longer can I love you
When baby you don't love me back
