

I Hate You So Much

Alexander 23

I only lie when I wish it was the truth
I hate you, I hate you so much
I close my eyes but all I see is you
I hate that, I love you so much

I fantasize that all my dreams come true
To show you, what could've been ours
And I realize, it's a foolish thing to do
But I just can't, can't help it
I am angry, and I'm selfish, oh

I close my eyes but all I see is your face
Laughing back at me
I miss you but you do not miss me back
I close my eyes but all I see is your face
Laughing back at me
I miss you but you do not miss me back

I hate you, I hate you so much
I hate you, I hate you so much
