

Nevermind

Alexander Jean

Doing my time
At the back of the line
Watching me wait
My mistake
Never-mind

What's the use in holding
Onto where we're going?
Baby, close your eyes, ease your mind
There's no way of knowing
But if it's you I'm holding
It'll be alright

Losing my mind
Time to try one more time
How much can I take
Before I break?
Never-mind

What's the use in holding
Onto where we're going?
Baby, close your eyes, ease your mind
There's no way of knowing
But if it's you I'm holding
It'll be alright

So what's the use in holding
(There's no knowing)
Onto where we're going
(Where we're going)
There's no way of knowing
(Holding me tight)
But if it's you I'm holding
(We'll be alright)

What's the use in holding
Onto where we're going?
Baby, close your eyes, ease your mind
There's no way of knowing
But if it's you I'm holding
It'll be alright

Doing my time
My mistake
Never-mind
