

Run

Alexander Jean

The sky is gold
My eyes are red
I'm in control of all my senses
As I begin
To resurrect
My heart is thunder in my chest and

All that matters is all I'm after
Bang that goes the gun

Run
Faster than the wind can fly
Run
'Til the sun and earth collide just
Run

When you delays
When nail and thorn
And you begin to cry
Relive the day
That you were born
Remember why we fight

All that matters is all I'm after
Bang that goes the gun

Run
Faster than the wind can fly
Run
'Til the sun and earth collide
Run
Run, oh

The mountains will be high
And we will climb them through violent weather
If we are off to die
We will all die together, ah

Run
Faster than the wind can fly, oh
Run
'Til the sun and earth collide just
Run
Run

We run
We run
The rain will fall to drown us all
We'll dance through the waves
The fire will rise reaching the skies
We'll sing for the flames
The rain will fall to drown us all
We'll dance through the waves, oh
The fire will rise reaching the skies
We'll sing for the flames, oh
