

Sunset Town

Alexander Ludwig

You got a tear drop trail
Rollin' down your cheek
I can see in those heartbreak eyes
That you're worried 'bout me

Like where am I gonna go
And what I am gonna do
How am I ever gonna get by without you

I'll probably wind up in some sunset town
Some little bar with a regular crowd
Wearing some old jukebox out
Yeah, shootin' 'em down
Wake up late and go lay in the shade
Under a big blue sky all day
Wait till happy hour rolls back around
In some ol' sunset town

Where the road runs out
Where the boats roll in
Where the sand and the salt in the air
Are both on your skin

I know it's gonna hurt
Yeah, it's gonna take some time
But baby, don't you worry I'll be fine

I'll probably wind up in some sunset town
Some little bar with a regular crowd
Wearing some old jukebox out
Yeah, shootin' 'em down
Wake up late and go lay in the shade
Under a big blue sky all day
Wait till happy hour rolls back around
In some ol' sunset town
Some ol' sunset town

I'll probably wind up in some sunset town
Wearing some old jukebox out
Yeah, shootin' em down
Wake up late and go lay in the shade
Under a big blue sky all day
Wait till happy hour rolls back around
In some ol' sunset town
In some ol' sunset town
Some ol' sunset town
