

Complicated

Alexander Oscar

I've been losin' sleep
Been thinkin' about the times I've let you down
If this is what you need
I have to let you go this time around

But whenever I think of you with someone else
I'm remindin' myself I was so unfair
And I got no excuse, I forgot you in it
Still want you

But I'm so complicated, I know...

I'm so complicated
I'm so complicated, I know
I'm so complicated
I'm so complicated, I know
I'm so complicated
I'm so complicated, I know
I'm so complicated
I'm so complicated, I know

Been trying everything
Just to keep my mind off what we've lost
So I need to rethink
Do I have to let you go this time around

'Cause whenever I think of you with someone else
I'm remindin' myself I was so unfair
And I got no excuse I forgot you in it
Still want you

But I'm so complicated, I know...

I'm so complicated
I'm so complicated, I know
I'm so complicated
I'm so complicated, I know
I'm so complicated
I'm so complicated, I know
I'm so complicated
I'm so complicated, I know

Maybe I just need some time, I do
And maybe I just need some time from you

But whenever I think of you with someone else
I'm remindin' myself that I miss you here
I don't want no excuse, I just need you in it
I want you

I'm so complicated, I know...

I'm so complicated
I'm so complicated, I know
I'm so complicated
I'm so complicated, I know
I'm so complicated

I'm so complicated, I know
I'm so complicated
I'm so complicated, I know

Now you know I still wantchya
Now you know I still wantchya
Now you know I still wantchya

Now you know I still wantchya
Now you know I still wantchya
Now you know I still wantchya
I'm so complicated, I know
