

Return

Alexander Rybak

It's almost night, I should be sleeping,
But the moon's so bright, as if it's praying with me,
Round and round, I walk in circles aimlessly,
Where could you be?

The purple skies were so inviting
When we used to fly,
But the excitement slowly fades away,
Feels like there's nothing I wanna do,
Not without you.

Ref
And I will cry you a thousand tears
The day you will return,
Tonight I swear, I'll stay right here
Until you will return.

And every little cloud,
And every single star,
Reminds me of just how much I miss you...
(2x)

Ref
And I will cry you a thousand tears
The day you will return,
Tonight I swear, I'll stay right here
Until you will return.

Ref
And I will cry you a thousand tears
The day you will return,
Tonight I swear, I'll stay right here
Until you will return.
(2x)

And every little cloud...
Reminds me of just how much I miss you (Until you will return).
..
(2x)

And every little cloud,
And every single star,
Reminds me of just how much I miss you...
