

24 Hours

Alexander Stewart

I don't wanna call you
I just wanna know how you are (hm)
Is it stupid that I miss you?
Even after all of these scars

Met you on a Sunday, broke my heart on Monday
Now it's been a month and I don't think I'm ok
I can't go a whole day, without you on my brain
How am I still hung up?

Crazy how a life can change in 24 hours (hey)
You just took a look at me and took all of my power (hey)
I fell for you all the way to rock bottom
Wish you would keep all the memories 'cause I don't want 'em
We were dancing 'round the kitchen, now I'm crying in the shower
It's crazy how my life can change in 24 hours

Staring at the clock and
Wishing I could just fall asleep (oh)
I know that you're not ya
You're never ever thinking of me (hey)

I'm alright on Tuesday, lose my mind on Wednesday
It feels like a year now, since I was ok
I can't go a whole day, without you on my brain
Will I ever make it out?

Crazy how a life can change in 24 hours (hey)
You just took a look at me and took all of my power (hey)
I fell for you all the way to rock bottom
Wish you would keep all the memories 'cause I don't want 'em
We were dancing 'round the kitchen, now I'm crying in the shower
It's crazy how my life can change in 24 hours
