

blame's on me

Alexander Stewart

The worst part is you're innocent in all of this
I was just calling quits
You were giving me all that I could need
I was missing it, now I'm all alone
Going through our old messages and I'm getting it

Usually I'm the one getting burned
Didn't realize I was hurting you

Oh god I'm sorry
I put you through hell
You tried to love me
When I hated myself
I know it's too late
For apologies
For all of the mistakes that I didn't see
The blame's on me

Hate this is such a cliché
Don't know what, what you have til it's gone away
But that don't take, take away any pain
I'm still here sleeping in the bed I made
Next to an empty space

Usually I'm the one getting burned
Didn't realize I was hurting you

Oh god I'm sorry
I put you through hell
You tried to love me
When I hated myself
I know it's too late
For apologies
For all of the mistakes that I didn't see
The blame's on me

Blame is all on me
Blame is all on me
Blame is all on me
The blame's on me
Blame is all on me
Blame is all on me
Blame is all on me

Oh god I'm sorry
I hope that you're well
Someone will love you
Like I couldn't myself
