

Here Again

Alexander Stewart

(Always and forever)
(I'll find you)

I'm wearing your sweater like we're still together
I should take it off
I drank to the bottom of another bottle
Just to forget it all
The bad, the beautiful

Too far down memory river to turn back now
Last time I went swimming with ya
We both drowned

Now it's 3 a.m.
I wonder where you are and how you've been
I can't tell my friends
But God knows that I want you here again

Halfway through September and you're still the center
Of all my broken dreams, oh
No tears but it's raining, do you feel the same when
Your body's missing me?
And you know where I'll be

Last time I went swimming with ya
We both drowned

Now it's 3 a.m.
I wonder where you are and how you've been
I can't tell my friends
But God knows that I want you here again

Here again
Here again
I hate you got me here again
Here again
I hate you got me here again

(Always and forever)
(I'll find you)
Here again
(Always and forever)
Here again
(I'll find you)
(Here again)

Now it's 3 a.m.
I wonder where you are and how you've been
I can't tell my friends
But God knows that I want you here again

Here again
(Always and forever)
Here again
(I'll find you)
I hate you got me here again
(Always and forever)

You'll find me
