

His Problem Instead

Alexander Stewart

And I heard that you found someone new
2 weeks after me and you
Lucky that I'm not the jealous type

Cos I gave you everything that's left
You gave me something to forget
I hope you know that you ruined my life

So oh oh oh
I could get so mad that he's the one you wanted
Oh oh oh
Baby you know how to break a fucking promise

So good luck to your boyfriend
He's gonna need it
When you go off and cheat again
Good luck to your boyfriend
Got alot to deal with
Thank god you're now his problem instead

Ooo ooo
Thank god you're now his problem instead

It was perfect for the first two months
I even would have called it love
But I guess on the way that you forgot

You gaslit me into a fire
You're the best looking damn liar
Deep inside your soul it starts to rot

Oh oh oh
Baby you know how to break a fucking promise

So good luck to your boyfriend
He's gonna need it
When you go off and cheat again
Good luck to your boyfriend
Got alot to deal with
Thank god you're now his problem instead
You're now his problem instead

And I heard that you found someone new
2 weeks after me and you
Lucky that I'm not the jealous type

So good luck to your boyfriend
He's gonna need it
When you go off and cheat again
Good luck to your boyfriend
Got alot to deal with
Thank god you're now his problem instead
You're now his problem instead
You're now his problem instead
