

I believe in time travel
'Cause I got over you, then it all unravelled
Feelin' everything backwards
Bought a house on memory lane
I was good for like two months
Must've tripped, hit my head
Now it hurts, like, oh, fuck
Movin' on, it feels useless
Yeah, I thought I got away, but it was

Such a cold July
When we said, "Goodbye"
I spent all of August sortin' your stuff into boxes
Thinkin' maybe by September
I'd be feeling better
But just when I thought cuts had turned to scars
October broke my heart

Maybe you're the leaves fallin'
Or the chill in the air, made me all nostalgic
Call it what you want, or call it
But it all just hurts the same, uh

Had a couple good one-nights
Maybe two, maybe three, I was free, but then like
I was in a new kingsize and I almost said your name
Damn, it was

Such a cold July
When we said, "Goodbye"
I spent all of August sortin' your stuff into boxes
Thinkin' maybe by September
I'd be feeling better
But just when I thought cuts had turned to scars
October broke my heart

Heart
October broke my heart

Right when I'm feeling better
I forget then I remember
You and I
You and I, uh-uh, mm
With the long nights in November
Or the dark days of December
Fix this broken heart of mine

'Cause it was such a cold July
When we said, "Goodbye"
I spent all of August sortin' your stuff into boxes
Thinkin' maybe by September (Oh)
I'd be feeling better
But just when I thought cuts had turned to scars
October broke my heart

(Oh) Heart
Broke my heart
