

Shady

Alexander Stewart

You change like seasons
Red, yellow, silver, gold
Don't want these reasons
It's time to let you know

It's hard to see this honesty
Is the first place that you go
When you're back into a corner
It's hard to say this

But you're so shady
The sun's up but you're still cold
Yes, no maybes
Damn, it's really getting old
'Cause second best never comes in first
One of us is gonna get hurt
Yeah, you're so shady
The sun is up but you're still cold
Yeah, you're so shady
Yeah, you're so shady
Yeah, you're so shady

The same old story
You say that you're at home
But I saw your story
And girl, you're not alone

It's hard to see this honesty
Is the first place that you go
When you're back into a corner
I don't want to say this

But you're so shady
The sun's up but you're still cold
Yes, no maybes
Damn, it's really getting old
'Cause second best never comes in first
One of us is gonna get hurt
Yeah, you're so shady
The sun is up but you're still

Running out of time
Thought that we were fine
I'm losing my mind, oh
Yes, we lost our light
Thought that we were fine
I'm losing my mind, oh

You're so shady
The sun's up but you're still cold
Yes, no maybes
Damn, it's really getting old
'Cause second best never comes in first
Yeah, you're so shady
The sun is up but you're still cold

Yes, no maybe
Getting old
Yeah, you're so shady
You're cold
Yeah, you're so shady
You're so cold
Yeah, you're so shady
Yeah you're so shady
You're so shady
