

Shy

Alexander Stewart

I got this song in my head
I wanna sing to you
But I keep stalling instead
I don't know what to do
You make it hard to forget
I've got a lot to lose
But I'm not giving up yet
The words are overdue

I can't get you out of my mind
I'm losing sleep tonight

I wanna be that guy
Stand up and tell you why
I need you to be mine
But you got me paralysed
They tell me to be brave
What if you walk away?
I know the things I should say
But I'm a little bit shy, shy-y
Just a little bit shy, shy-y

I would just grab your hand
And pull you close to me
When you're talking so fast
Know I'm listening
And when I don't call you back
Maybe it's meant to be
'Cause I want you so bad
I'd give anything

I can't get you out of my mind
I'm losing sleep tonight
Oh God, why don't I try?

I wanna be that guy
Stand up and tell you why
I need you to be mine
But you got me paralysed
They tell me to be brave
What if you walk away?
I know the things I should say
But I'm a little bit shy, shy-y
Just a little bit shy, shy-y

Let me light it for you
Like a supernova
Losing my composure
So high
Let's not waste the feeling
Staring at the ceiling
Wait, my heart is beating

I think I'll be that guy
I need you to be mine
But you got me paralysed

They told me to be brave
So don't you walk away
