

Even When Your Love Is Gone

Alexander

Oh, your heart feels cold - when your love is gone
Oh, someday I know, your prince will come
Babe, I swear to you - I'm not a dreamer
Oh, you cannot win - with a losing hand
But your time will come - maybe in the end
Babe, I swear to you - I'm not a dreamer
Someday the sun will shine - will shine for you
And all the rain is gone - and you're not the fool

Even when your love is gone
Even when you're so alone, oh, I'll care
Everytime, oh, I'll be there
Even when you're down and out
Even when you heart cries loud, oh, I'll care
Everytime, oh, I'll be there, everytime I'll be there

You don't sleep alone - in your lonely bed
If you call, babe - I'll make you glad
Babe, I swear to you - I'm not a dreamer
Oh, don't count your tears - in a silent night
Baby, please, stand up - can't you see the light?
Babe, I swear to you - I'm not a dreamer
Tell me your dreams, my love, and I'll tell you mine
And the end of the night - the sun always shines
