

Right Now

Alexandra Kay

People like us they don't talk anymore, they don't love any les s
I'm under these lights, I ain't slept through the night since t he day that you left Right now I should be dancin' up on the bar, breakin' somebody'
s heart
Not wonderin' where you are
Right now I should be shotgun in your Jeep
Not reminiscing on who we used to be

Deep down what cuts me like a knife
Is under all this pride, knowing you were right now
Oh the tears are all but dry
It's too late to fight for us to make it right now
I hate the way I always check my phone
Every time I wanna call I don't
Want this whiskey over ice or someone else tonight
I just want you right now

People like us yeah we try to forgive but we never forget
How good it was and if you showed back up no I couldn't resist Right now I should be climbin' into a car, stealin' somebody's heart
Not wonderin' where you are
Right now I should be shotgun in your Jeep
Not reminiscing on who we'll never be

Deep down what cuts me like a knife
Is under all this pride, knowing you were right now
Oh the tears are all but dry
It's too late to fight for us to make it right now
I hate the way I always check my phone
Every time I wanna call I don't
Want this whiskey over ice or someone else tonight
I just want you right now

No we can't make it right now

Deep down what cuts me like a knife
Is under all this pride, knowing you were right now
Oh the tears are all but dry
It's too late to fight for us to make it right now
I hate the way I always check my phone
Every time I wanna call I don't
Want this whiskey over ice or someone else tonight
I just want you right now
I just want you right now
I just want you right now
