

Howl

Alexandra Savior

It's a little dangerous
When you come treading by me
Hide and seek delirium
Where do you think you'll find me?

Hold a little tighter, boy, 'cause I
Am falling from behind
Walk a little lighter, boy, 'cause I
Can't get you off my mind

Howl

It's a little peculiar
Cold sweats off dripping down my bed
Transatlantic barrier
Trust falling right into my death

Hold a little tighter, boy, 'cause I
Am falling from behind
Walk a little lighter, boy, 'cause I
Can't get you off my mind

Howl
Can't get you off my mind
Howl

Handsome dictator of my crimes
I can't tell if they're yours, I can't tell if they're mine
Sweet revelation bitter wine
I'm dreaming but mostly I'm feeling behind

Hold a little tighter, boy, 'cause I
Am falling from behind
Walk a little lighter, boy, 'cause I
Can't get you off my mind
