

Cherry Lips

Alexandra Stan

So if you want the night
The things are for us brought only love
Picture perfect, you see in us
Pretty tales are made from above

Mm, yeah
Hm, hm, hm
Mm, yeah
Hm, hm, hm

Cherry, cherry lips, so high
Don't you know my lips run dry
Before you kiss them, mm
Fairy, fairy tales don't lie
Now my soul is so alive
After you kiss me
Ah, ah, ah

Afternoon was for the huggin'
Night was for the lovin' and then I, I
I was falling high

So if you want the night
The things are for us brought only love
Picture perfect, you see in us
Pretty tales are made from above
So if you want the night
The things are for us brought only love
Picture perfect, you see in us
Pretty tales are made from above

Mm, yeah
Hm, hm, hm
Mm, yeah
Hm, hm, hm

'Cause I'm waking up at night
'Cause I'm searching in my mind for you
(For you, for you, for you)
As I'm falling in these lies
Baby, you were just a perfect muse

But if you want the night
The things are for us brought only love
Picture perfect, you see in us
Pretty tales are made from above
So if you want the night
The things are for us brought only love
Picture perfect, you see in us
Pretty tales are made from above

Mm, yeah
(The things are for us)
Oh, oh (Only love)
(The things are for us)
