

New Moon

Alexandre Desplat

Sweep this pain
you left me gravely still im screaming out your name see me fall
this forsaken love
erase my fears
im living a life alone

escape the rain
come to me, cradle me, yell for me
can you hear my cries
escape the rain
how do i escape...the rain

keep me alive
revive my love
I need you,whispering my name break down this wall
unglad my day
help me breathe
dont give up on me love

escape the rain
run to me ,cradle me,yell for me
escape the rain

can you heal this wound from bleeding inside
inside x 3

escape the rain
run to me,cradle me,yell for me
escape the rain
