

Fire

Alexiane

An angel dropped me at the doorsteps
Of an enchantress
She took care of me for a while
She covered my body, my body with leaves
I close my eyes, I'm high in Mexico
Now my mind is at the Dead Sea
Magic bring my skin to the feel of silk
Make me believe in forever

Come now, come, my baby girl, come
Come into my world
I'm here, you'll heal
I promise you the world
Come into my world
'Cause you're my baby girl

You set my heart on fire, on fire, fire
You set my heart on fire, on fire, fire

I'm bathing in goat milk
The galleys are flying
The spirits are singing
In this army of trees
They're singing me their melodies
And it gets overwhelming at times
And they make my skin bleed
But music saved me

She put my face in her hands
And praised her Lord, told me everything's
On the flow, that gates open and close
All the time, bad things don't last
You thought you were made of glass
Yet you're unbreakable, you're unbreakable
Be the unbreakable
Be the unbreakable

Come now, come, my baby girl, come
Come into my world
I'm here, you'll heal
I promise you the world
Come into my world
'Cause you're my baby girl

You set my heart on fire, on fire, fire
You set my heart on fire, on fire, fire
You set my heart on fire, on fire, fire
You set my heart on fire, on fire, fire
