

Single Again

Alexiane

Sipping here alone for Christmas
You don't love me anymore
Now that you're gone, I can't fill the void
Why so empty on my own?

All the ghosts and all the demons
They come back to haunt me now
I took all the punches at once
And it's all hitting me now

Single again, single again
Can't believe I'm here again
Wasn't meant to settle down
Amen
No pain no gain, what they say
Single again, single again
Cheers to Christmas on my own
When it rains it pours but I dance
Slow dancing in the rain

Ah ah ah ah
Baby I love you
Maybe I miss us

I just need to sit with myself
And ask the right questions
What I want, what I need
For once I'll put myself first
Oh, happiness I'd be looking for you
In everything, in everyone but me

I'm on a boat in the Maldives now
I finally know I don't need you
Putting the work in for self-love
And right now, I get to sing

Single again
Can't believe I'm here again
Wasn't meant to settle down
Amen
No pain no gain, what they say
Single again
Cheers to Christmas on my own
When it rains it pours but I dance
Slow dancing in the rain

Ah ah ah ah
Baby I love you
And maybe I miss us
Ah ah ah ah
Maybe I'm alone now
But I feel whole for the first time

How did I give you so much power?
Kept thinking I wasn't good enough
Whole is in nobody's arms
Home is in my mind

The power is mine
It's a new type of love
It's a new type of love

Single again
Can't believe I'm here again
Wasn't meant to settle down
Amen
No pain no gain, what they say
Single again
Cheers to Christmas on my own
When it rains it pours but I dance
Slow dancing in the rain

Ah ah ah ah
Baby I love you
And maybe I miss us
Ah ah ah ah
Maybe I'm alone now
But I feel whole for the first time

I feel alone I do
But it's not a bad thing anymore
I do what I've always dreamt to do
