

Burn

Alexis Munroe

It's the way
You don't care if I hurt
It's the way
You set me on fire and watched me burn

I don't see you when I look in your eyes
It feels like a part of you has died
I feel no familiarity, nothing of the sorts
Even with your hands on me, I'm colder than before
Drowning in your venom, it burns from within
I saw the way you looked at me
Something felt different

It's the way
You don't care if I hurt
It's the way
You set me on fire and watched me burn
(Ah, ah)
You set me on fire and watched me burn
(Ah, ah)
You don't care if I

"I don't know" is what you said
Why can't you just tell me where you've been?
All these thoughts inside my head
You watched me bleed, I just bled
"I don't know" is what you said
Why can't you just tell me where you've been?
All these thoughts inside my head
You watched me bleed, I just bled

It's the way
You don't care if I hurt
It's the way
You set me on fire and watched me burn

It's the way
You don't care if I hurt
It's the way
You set me on fire and watched me burn
(Ah, ah)
You set me on fire and watched me burn
(Ah)
You don't care if I hurt
