

Never Be The Same

Alexis Munroe

You were so bright
You were older
You taught me how to fly
You were my teacher, my shoulder
You taught me how to lie

Built me up, broke me down
Lying helpless on the ground
How will I, how will I, how will I ever be the same?
Given up, can't pretend
No use trying to make amends
How will I ever be the same?

I was too young
Now I'm older
I had to say goodbye
I found my own way
But I still need you
You left me asking why

Built me up, broke me down
Lying helpless on the ground
How will I, how will I, how will I ever be the same?
Given up, can't pretend
No use trying to make amends
How will I ever be the same?

You burnt my halo
You burnt my halo
You burnt my halo
You burnt my halo
But I'm alive

Built me up, broke me down
Lying helpless on the ground
How will I, how will I, how will I ever be the same?
Given up, can't pretend
No use trying to make amends
How will I, how will I, how will I ever be the same?
Built me up, broke me down
Lying helpless on the ground
How will I ever be the same?
How will I ever be the same?
