

Sober

Alexis Munroe

Sober
I don't know how I stay sober

I feel unsafe
Oh, when I see myself
Don't know who I am
Lose every time
All of the games I play
I made them so hard
One that I know
One that I met
It's all make believe
It's all in my head
I sat and wept
Alone, just me

I don't know how I stay sober anymore
I needed you, wouldn't look me in the eye
Turned your back and slammed the door
Don't wanna be sober anymore
I don't know how I stay sober anymore
