

They Don't Know

Alexis Munroe

I don't need more friends
I already got enough of those
Only you know how to talk to me
And get me to let myself go
Let's watch the world go to shit
There's nothing we can do 'bout it
I wanna live in the right now
(I wanna live in the right now)

I just wanna play
We're too young to be so goddamn serious
It's all temporary
You can't break me down
And we don't care
What anyone has to say to us
Or what anyone thinks of us
Because they don't know

You think you know me
But you really fucking don't
And you thought you owned me
But you really didn't though
You were my favorite mistake
But I had to let you go

I just wanna play
We're too young to be so goddamn serious
It's all temporary
You can't break me down
And we don't care
What anyone has to say to us
Or what anyone thinks of us

I just wanna play
(I just wanna play)
We don't have to be so goddamn serious
I just wanna play
(Know you want to play with me too)

I just wanna play
We're too young to be so goddamn serious
It's all temporary
You can't break me down
And we don't care
What anyone has to say to us
Or what anyone thinks of us
Because they don't know

You think you know me
