I'm Stranded

Alexisonfire

Like a snake calling on the phone I've got no time to be alone there is some one coming at me all the time babe I think I'll lose my mind
'cause I'm stranded on my own stranded far from home
I'm riding on a midnight train & everybody looks just the same a subway light it's dirty reflection I'm lost I don't have a direction I'm stranded on my own
stranded far from home
Look at me looking at you there ain't a thing that I can do you are lost your mind is a whirl baby such a stupid girl Livin' in a world insane they cut out some heart & some brain
'been filling it up with dirt do you know how much it hurts... to be...stranded on my own
stranded far from home

Stranded I'm so far from home Stranded yeah I am on my own Stranded why don't you leave me alone
