You Burn First

Alexisonfire

I said, "Cover me if there is a fire 'Cause I want you to burn first"
She screamed at me, "I want to be desired"
I said, "Easy girl, I know it hurts"

Let's all give thanks that I am a liar 'Cause I've got a feeling, I just might get worse Now there's nothing wrong with you, I'm just tired And I'm in a mood for a brand new curse

You burn first You burn first You burn first You burn first

"Cover me if there is a fire
'Cause I want you to burn first"
She screamed at me, "I want to be desired"
I said, "Girl, I know it hurts"

Let's all give thanks that I am a liar 'Cause I've got a feeling, I just might get worse Now there's nothing wrong with you, I'm just tired And I'm in a mood for a brand new curse
