

Never Enough

Alextbh

I'm fine
I'll just pretend
That it'll be over
But next time
I see my friends
I better be sober

Oh it's so damn hard
Oh it's so damn hard
To stay sane
When the world is not
We did all that we could
But it's never enough
Never enough

Taste of iron on my tongue
I'm bleeding from the inside
Can we try this one more time?
I'm sorry your card's declined

Oh it's so damn hard
Oh it's so damn hard
To stay sane
When the world is not
We did all that we could
But it's never enough
Never enough

It's fine
I'll just pretend
That it'll be over
Come home
I see my friends
And nobody sober

Oh it's so damn hard
Oh it's so damn hard
Will I be enough?
Will I be, will I be, will I be?
