

Walls

Alextbh

My love, I'm
So afraid for things to change
My love
Guess I'm too carried away

I don't
Need you to plan my life out like
"You'll find a man that's better than me"
See, my walls don't take one day to rebuild
My love
My love
My love

Don't think I'll ever call you mine
Every night
I sought for solitude
But can't stay silent
Put that curse and go
"I love you"
"I love you"

I don't
Need you to plan my life out like
"You'll find a man that's better than me"
See, my walls don't take one day to rebuild
My love
My love
My love
My love
