

We'll Make It

Alextbh

I don't wanna speak my mind
I don't wanna spend my time
Waiting for you on the line every night
Is it worth waiting for?
Wanna show up at your door
Wanna hear you say we'll make it
Wanna hear you say we'll make it

See the morning light
Fuck it, shut the blinds
Don't know what's the time
Don't know if I have the drive, baby
Where's the reassurance when I need it?
Empty all the bottles 'cause I need it
Empty all the bottles to find a meaning

Am I really back home
If I can't come home to you yeah
So familiar yet so lost, oh
These walls are caving in
The living room's not made to live in
Wanna punch through the ceiling

I don't wanna speak my mind (Speak my mind)
I don't wanna spend my time (Spend my time)
Waiting for you on the line every night
Is it worth waiting for? (Waiting for?)
Wanna show up at your door (At your door)
Wanna hear you say we'll make it
Wanna hear you say we'll make it

Put our plans on hold now
Wish I could catch a plane and zone out (Zone out)
Ooh, wake up, touchdown, I'm on the ground
I see you now, see you now

Did I really left home
If I made a home in you, yeah?
Yeah how I wish I wasn't lost, no
'Cause these walls are caving in
The living room's not made to live in
Wanna punch through the ceiling

I don't wanna speak my mind (Speak my mind)
I don't wanna spend my time (Spend my time)
Waiting for you on the line every night (Every night)
Is it worth waiting for? (Waiting for?)
Wanna show up at your door (At your door)
Wanna hear you say we'll make it (We'll make it)
Wanna hear you say we'll make it (We'll make it baby)

Just say we'll make it
Oh, say we'll make it
Just say we'll make it
Say we'll make it
Say we'll make it
