

Alice In Wonderland

Alexz Johnson

Maybe I'm unkind, maybe I am cruel
I know
Maybe I am blind, maybe I'm a fool
I know

And maybe I
Will miss you when you're gone
And maybe time
Time will prove me wrong

Cause my fingers want to slip
When you hold my hand
When you touch my lips
I'm sinking in the sand
And shouldn't it feel
Like I'm Alice in Wonderland

It's out of my control
It's how the story goes
You know
My hands are getting cold
But trying to let go

And maybe you
Will miss me when I'm gone
And maybe time
Will help you carry on

Cause my fingers want to slip
When you hold my hand
When you touch my lips
I'm sinking in the sand
And shouldn't it feel
Like I'm Alice in Wonderland

We can go on and on
But someday I'll break your heart
We'll set each other free
And make it easier for us to part

And maybe I
Will miss you when you're gone
Maybe time
Time will prove me wrong, oh no

But my fingers want to slip
When you hold my hand
When you touch my lips
I'm sinking in the sand
And shouldn't it feel
