

Breathe

Alexz Johnson

Take me to some place unknown
Where you'll leave me on my own
I am living on my shadows
I am far away from knowing what I need
Need to walk this path alone
I believe we can be free

There is only one condition
I can see from my position
Let the rain wash all this sadness out of me
Should I drown in my sorrow?
Tomorrow, underwater I will learn to breathe
I will learn to breathe

There is magic in the air
It surrounds us everywhere
Need to walk your brother home
When he's far away from knowing what he needs

There is only one condition
I can see from my position
Let the rain wash all this sadness out of me
Should I drown in my sorrow?
Tomorrow, underwater I will learn to breathe
I will learn to breathe, oh yeah

Take me to the promised land
Oh my god, I won't regret it
Move forward the lands ahead of me
Take me to the promised land
Oh my god, I won't regret it
Move forward the lands ahead of me

(Oh, there is only one)
There is only one condition
I can see from my position
Let the rain wash all this sadness out of me
Should I drown in my sorrow?
Tomorrow, underwater I will learn to breathe
I will learn to breathe

I will learn to breathe, oh
I will learn to breathe
I will learn to breathe (I will learn)
I will learn to breathe

I will learn (to breathe)
I will learn
Hm, I will learn to breathe
I will learn (to breathe)
Will learn to breathe
Will learn to breathe
Will learn to breathe
