

Man Like You

Alexz Johnson

Don't take pride to fall in love
Nothing else I need to fulfill my dreams
You're by my side
I feel alive, you're by my side

I recognize, no matter what
We don't have a lot
But the whole wide world is ours
You give enough, you give me love

You give it heart, you wanna please her
Turn a hater into a believer
What would I give to have a man like you
What would I give to have a man like you
Ooh, wait a minute I do

Don't need to try, don't need to hide
It's so natural
It's the way it feels with you and I
You're by my side, I feel alive

You get the Jack, you bring the fever
Boy you are higher, it's you that I admire
It is true
It don't take much to fall in love with you

You give it heart, you wanna please her
Turn a hater into a believer
What would I give to have a man like you
What would I give to have a man like you

You make it right, you make it good
And you doing everything you should
What would I give to have a man like you
A man that always seems to follow through

What would I give to have a man like you
Ooh

You give it heart, you wanna please her
Turn a hater into a believer
What would I give to have a man like you
Hm, wait a minute I do
I got a man like you
