Nothin' on Me

Alexz Johnson

Troubles come, shadows stray
But in the end, it's got nothin' on me
Bricks and mortar break the chains
Cause in the end…

Does nothing for me, does nothing for you
Treatin' somebody wrong, there's nowhere to be
And a broken heart is enough for two
You ain't so smart making me so blue

Does nothing for right, does nothing for wrong
I ain't sleeping at night, I'm just hiding alone
And a ripped out soul is potatoes in a bowl
In a fucked up world that makes you feel so cold

Troubles come, shadows stray
But in the end, it's got nothin' on me
Bricks and mortar break the chains
Cause in the end, it's got nothin' on me

I used to be so sad, I felt so alone
I couldn't leave my head
I was sore to the bone
Now I see the light, it's gonna be alright
If the train don't come, we'll make it just fine

Troubles come, shadows stray
But in the end, it's got nothin' on me
Bricks and mortar break the chains
Cause in the end, it's got nothin' on me

Troubles come, shadows stray
But in the end, it's got nothin' on me
Bricks and mortar break the chains
Cause in the end, it's got nothin' on me

It's got nothin' on me
It's got nothin' on me
