

Perfect

Alexz Johnson

Oh, oh, oh

Maybe I don't say all the right things
Maybe I stumble on the words
Maybe I laugh at all the wrong times
Maybe I mumble and I curse

The best I can do is to be myself
And I hope it's enough to make you proud

I can't explain just why I'm actin' this way
I can't control it, so go with it
I'm just a girl, I won't be changin' the world
And boy you know that, I'm not perfect
But I'm perfect for you

When you're in the room, my head is clear
You make the world just disappear
So open up your eyes and see

I can't explain just why I'm actin' this way
I can't control it, so go with it
I'm just a girl, I won't be changin' the world
And boy you know that

Oh yeah

I can't explain just why I'm actin' this way
I can't control it, so go with it
I'm just a girl, I won't be changin' the world
And boy you know that, I'm not perfect

I can't explain just why I'm actin' this way
I can't control it, so go with it
I'm just a girl, I won't be changin' the world
And boy you know that, I'm not perfect
But I'm perfect for you
